JETRO-Houston

(Registration No. 2277)

Response to Item 11:

Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO), Tokyo, Japan:

The Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO), established by a special law in Japan, is a non-profit, Japanese-government supported organization dedicated to promoting mutually beneficial trade and economic relations between Japan and other countries.

In the United States, JETRO currently maintains offices in New York, San Francisco, Chicago, Los Angeles, Houston, and Atlanta. These offices provide information relating to the Japanese economy and business as well as U.S.-Japan economic and trade relations and engage in various activities to promote a mutual understanding of U.S.-Japan economic and trade relations. The functions of JETRO's U.S. offices are believed to be similar to those of the United States Trade Center or U.S. Commercial Service (of the United States Department of Commerce).

As the Houston-based office of the Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO), JETRO-Houston provides to public officials, corporations, associations, individuals and any other interested parties information and materials relating to various aspects of Japanese economy and business, as well as U.S.-Japan economic and trade relations. JETRO-Houston also monitors the development of U.S. economic and market conditions for JETRO.
